

Performance Inspections

Performance inspections of existing businesses and occupancies are made on a periodic basis. These inspections are performed referencing the Life Safety Code. The rate of inspection is dependent on the type of occupancy or target hazard. Those occupancies which might present a high degree of loss to life or property are inspected on a more frequent basis.